LILIANE HEIDELBERGER & DANIELLE GROSBUSCH

Save The Date: Vernissage 13. March

For English Version - See below

Et ass mir eng Freed a grouss Éier ze annoncieren dat ech mam Liliane Heidelberger zesummen zu Esch wäert ausstellen. D'Liliane war eng groussartig Kënschtlerin an huet wonnerschéin Skulpturen gemaach. Leider ass hat 2019 verstuerwen. Seng Wierker liewen awer weider.

Ech si glécklech dat ech dësen Dialog mam Liliane senge Skulpture ka maachen; eng eenzel Ausstellung hat ech net geplangt a wei d'Nathalie Becker mer dëst virgeschlo huet hunn ech net laang missten iwwerleeën.

Den 13. Mäerz ass de Vernissage zu Esch am Schlassgoart am Pavillon du Centenaire virgesinn an et wier mir eng grouss Freed wanns du bis laanscht kënns kommen. Du kanns der jo scho mol den Datum am Kalenner fräihalen.

D' Ausstellung geet vum 13. Mäerz bis de 4. Abrëll 2020.

Matching Liliane's sculptures and Danielle's gravures, a great fit.

---

It is my pleasure and greatest honor to announce that I will be exhibiting together with Liliane Heidelberger in Esch. Liliane was a fantastic artist and has created wonderful sculptures. Unfortunately, Liliane passed away in 2019, but her artwork and creativity lives on.

I am happy to have this dialogue between Liliane's sculptures and my gravures; a solo exhibition was not planned for this year, nor was a big expo like this one. But when Nathalie Becker came to me with this project, I didn't really have to think about it for too long.

The Vernissage will be on the 13th of March in Esch, at the Schlassgoart, Pavillon du Centenaire. It would be my pleasure if you could pass by. For now you can already mark the dates in your calendar.

The EXPO will last from the 13th of March until the 4th of April 2020.
